

Attached Entities

Beyond Quantum Healing does not focus upon the concept of attached entities but acknowledges this may be something experienced by BQH practitioners in individual sessions. How and why some practitioners, or some clients, experience this phenomenon while others seem to not experience it at all is a topic and discussion beyond the scope of this course and this document, but fascinating nonetheless.

That said, the following are some basic optional protocols when faced with this scenario:

1. Identification - The Universal Law of 3. If it is desired to know who or what the attachment or entity is, ask the voice or entity who or what it is 3 times, taking care to ask the question precisely and exactly the same way each time. The answer you receive has to be precisely and exactly the same all three times to be considered authentic. Discarnate beings and those in Higher Dimensions must follow the Universal Law of 3 and therefore answer truthfully each of the three times. (In comparison, human beings have free will and are not bound by this law.)
2. Ask the Higher Self, the SC or the Inner Wisdom teams for assistance both in identification (if appropriate) and help in understanding and/or removal (if appropriate).

One practitioner shares the following from an actual session: “My client’s SC told us to “send out an SOS to the UNIVERSE for a BOMB of SOURCE LIGHT”. We did, and both of us felt a flash, of energetic confirmation in response to this request, move right through us. We let go of wanting to know who or what these entities were and why they were there. We just sent them love on their way back to Source.

3. Call upon Archangel Michael or Jeshua (Jesus) for assistance.
4. It’s a good idea after removal to fill any opening or “empty space” where the attachment previously resided with Source Light.
5. A good reference book on this topic is Edith Fiore’s “The Unquiet Dead” as it contains background, procedures and scripts.
6. Use a Negative Energy Release Script, one version is copied below for you:

Personal Negative Energy Release Script (Speak out loud and as regularly as guided)

First Person version:

I AM (your full legal name). I call upon my guides and all the highest councils of the light. I call upon my supporters, my animal spirits, my soul group, my soul group supervisors, and I ask you to protect me. I now command through the power of my voice that any implants, blockages, interference patterns, negative entities, shadows, chips, strings and chords, be now removed from my(heart chakra, crown chakra, etc...fill in as necessary) and from anywhere else in my etheric body, my astral body, my spirit body, and my physical body, which is here against my will against my permission, and against my higher purpose.

FROM NOW AND THROUGHOUT ALL TIME INFINITUM I now banish you from my energy field by the power of the most-high. I surrender you to be transformed through love.

Now I place protection as a golden barrier around myself, my etheric body, my astral body, my spirit body, my physical body and mostly around (the area upon which you have been specifically, if there is one).

Nothing can penetrate this barrier without my permission and knowing and consent. By the highest council, such it will be and I will fulfill my purpose on this planet, beginning NOW.
