

Bringing Healing Teams, Inner Healer, the Higher Self and the Light of Source

You can bring your client to their Healing Place, Healing Team, Inner Healer, Higher Self or Source at any time you are guided to do so, but in general this normally happens after a bit of consciousness exploration. (You might possibly combine the “Healing Place” with a place of “Inner Wisdom” i.e. “Temple of Healing and Wisdom,” if guided by intuition or time constraints.)

There may be Inner Healers or the Higher Self or Healing Angels standing by to whom you may ask questions like the root cause of an issue or to do a scan of the body for more information. You can ask—“is your healing team present?” Or you can simply suggest that they appear before them. Use your intuition and guidance and take cues from your client!

The following script is meant to be used as a guide and while it can simply be read word-for-word, the preferred idea is to customize the experience for your client while keeping their own healing needs and requests in mind.

The basic framework is this- bringing the light of Source through the crown, sweeping it through the body and energy fields down and out through the feet sending the light all the way down to the core of the Earth, bringing it back up again through the feet, out the head and back to Source.

You might even feel the energy going through their or your own body the first time you do this process...remain open to that idea. Even if at first you don’t feel, sense or see the energy, it is moving through and is there. With practice and patience most practitioners will eventually be able to feel it and also describe it as it moves through the body.

Not being able to sense/feel/see the energy or not describing it as a practitioner is not a problem, the client receives the light and healing energy just the same and your senses will heighten over time.

Bringing in the Light of Source – Sample Script

Imagine now if you will, the Great Central Sun. The center of All that there IS. The very heart of Source itself. This beautiful golden/platinum/silvery sparkling light is the brightest most powerful light you could possibly imagine.

We’re going to ask that the Great Central Sun send a beam of healing light and energy directly to you now.

This beautiful beam of light is arriving here now, and it is shining and dancing and sparkling now, just right on the top of your head, just beginning to be felt in the crown chakra. And this light is going to go through your entire body and all of your energy fields, but it begins slowly.

Right now, it is just at the top of your head. Maybe you can feel it, some warmth, a bit of pressure. This beautiful light begins to enter your scalp and across your head as it slowly begins to move into your skull and fills up your entire gray matter with light.

Moving through bone and muscle and tissue and tendon and nerves and into your bloodstream, the light surrounds every cell, every molecule, as it slowly moves down.

Across the 3rd eye chakra now, down into the eyes, sinuses, ears and mouth, the light moves and regenerates as it flows.

Clearing and rewiring the brain- dissolving negative looping thoughts and negative neural pathways, creating new neural connections with pure, positive light.

Down, down, down, slowly and warmly it goes now down into the throat and back of the neck. Clearing and cleansing every chakra as it moves, and down the spine now as well.

The light now begins to move across the shoulders and into the arms all the way down to the tips of the fingers. Down, down into the torso, across the back and also now the light now begins to fill all of the systems and organs. The lungs, and the heart, the digestive organs and down now into the lower pelvis. The reproductive organs are now bathed in this light.

And the light continues down. Down now into the big bones of the legs, down to the very marrow of the bones as it goes down, down, across the knees, the shins and the feet.

And the light continues now and moves down outside of the feet and into the floor as the light carries away all mis-qualified energies, negativity, and debris. Carrying away old programs and belief systems no longer required.

*The light continues down through the crust of the earth and through all of the layers, down, down to the very center of the planet, to the earth star (or heart)
And there, the earth recycles all of the unwanted energies and uses them for others in beneficial and benevolent ways.*

Then the light bounces pure and cleansed off the earth star and back up through all of the layers and levels back up through the crust of the planet and into the floor and back into your feet and body. Up the light goes through your legs, torso and head and out again through your crown back to the Great Central Sun.

And so, you are now fully cleansed and connected both to the Earth and to Source.
