

Connection and Protection

And as we gather here now, in this safe and sacred place I ask that only the highest and most Divine Original Source Energy Expressions and Beings be allowed to participate.

I invite (Client name) guides, angels, cosmic and soul family and (Client name) from the future AS an ascended master to join us today.

Also, I invite my own guides, angels, cosmic and soul family, and myself from the future as an ascended master to assist and participate in (Client name's) journey.

And now that (Client name) is surrounded by all of our combined teams, we ask that our and that their energy amplify and broadcast (Client name's) intention for this session across all realms of multi-dimensional reality to support her and we ask for the most benevolent outcome for all.

When you are connected in this way to only the highest and most divine original Source beings, you know that you are safe and that you are protected in every way. Being surrounded by these beings and infused with the light of Source itself, you begin to feel the warmth of a vibration or just a sense of deep knowingness that you can access any wisdom you seek.

With each breath this truth vibrates deeper within your body, within your bones
and your blood and your cells

and at the same time this connection expands your consciousness and expands your awareness.

And as your awareness expands, you find it easy to just let go of ALL expectations about what might be in store for your journey.

You find it easy to release the idea of anything at all needing to be in any certain way.
And you find that that is a very nice feeling indeed.
