

Who can “Show up” in a BQH Session?

Almost any being or any type of personality or consciousness can show up at any time during a BQH Session. The more Quantum Healers do this work, the more characters and beings we encounter. The list below is not at all to be thought of as an exhaustive list by any means, but a good starting point for you to ponder.

These beings may interact with the client in a past life or other type of storyline or interact directly with them as their present-day self. They can interact or speak with the client’s Higher Self. They can have direct conversations with you, the practitioner, as well.

How can you tell who is there?

- Sometimes the client will tell you or you can ask the client who is there
- “Who is currently speaking?”
- “Let’s ask who this is,”
- You also might not get names or descriptions directly and need to ask the Higher Self or Inner Wisdom.
- “Who is available for us to ask who this is” is another way to find help and at the same time possibly make a connection to their Inner Wisdom as well.

It’s possible that you will not know with whom you are interacting until a later time, maybe the post session or even later. Sometimes the client will need to ponder or meditate on the experience and the answer might come at the appropriate time in the future.

Here are just some of the more common aspects, beings, characters, and personalities. There are unlimited others including energy collectives of all kinds! Do not be surprised if you encounter a new one or one not on this list and when you do, please share on our Support Forum for all of us to learn.

- Source
- God or Creator
- Other energy collectives

- Stories (As an example a foot can have a limp manifest that was the result of a story of childhood)
- Traumas (As an example Fear can have a voice and tell you its origin was an assault of some kind)
- Diseases (As an example a virus can talk to the human host and explain why they are there)

- Backdrop or Background aspects (These beings are said to be not of original Source creation but are otherwise 'real' beings in other ways)
- Shadow Aspects of any being (The darker side of a personality)
- Teachers or Guides of all kinds
- Dolores Cannon
- Masaru Emoto
- Nikola Tesla, and others recently departed.

Remember that no matter who shows up in a session, you are the Practitioner and you are in charge of the session and it is your client's well-being that should be upper most in your mind at all times.
