

Open and Closed Questions

Sometimes starting with closed questions is easier for a client just stepping into an experience. Open-ended questions usually allow more information and the bigger story to come forth.

Closed Question Examples

- Are you inside or outside?
- Are you male or female?
- Are you younger or older?
- Are you physical or non-physical?
- Are you large or small?
- Are there others around here like you?
- Are you able to move?
- Are you able to change the color of the light?
- Can you ask your guide for assistance?

Open-Ended Question Examples

- How are you feeling right now?
- Can you tell me how you got to this place?
- What is your mission and purpose?
- How does that machine work?
- How did you meet this being?
- How are you going to help?
- What are the most enjoyable parts of your job?
- How do you go about entering that spacecraft?
- How does the language converter work?
- Can you tell me more about this?
- Can you explain it to me in a different way?
- Can you give me an example?
- Can you give me an analogy?
